22nd - 24th October 2008

University College Dublin, Ireland

*25th PLEA International Conference

Passive and Low Energy Architecture (PLEA) is a global community engaged in an on-going discourse on sustainable architecture and urban design. Since 1982 PLEA has organised international conferences across the globe and represents the longest running such event addressing passive and low energy building design and realisation.

2008 is PLEA's *25th anniversary and will take place at University College Dublin, Ireland with the theme:

'Towards Zero Energy Building'

At a time of great change in building design it promises to be a milestone in the advance of the role of passive and low energy architecture.

PLEA2008 extends an invitation to you to come to University College Dublin, Ireland and engage in what promises to be an active, lively and timely event.

PLEA 2008 provides the opportunity to:

- Keep up-to-date with the latest advances.
- Present your research within a unique forum.
